The election of officrs in the Grand Lodge of Masons lat night occasioned much interest among the friends of the differet parties whose names were prominently brought forward.

THE STATE DEBT.—The General Assembly is still hammering away on the public debt, but it is certain that no action will b taken until after the holidays. The following resolution was introduced in the House yesterday, and referred to the Finance Committee. We think the resolution met with general favor:

WHEREAS, propositios have been introduced into this General Assembly, some looking to a compromise, and others to a repudiation of the State debt; and whereas we recognize the fact that the State in its misfortunes should deal with its creditors upon the same general principles and in the same general manner adopted by honest individual debtors who were subjected to great loss by the calamities of the late war and on this account were unable to meet their liabilities; therefore,

Be it resolved by the Hou of Representatives the Senate concurring, that a commission of three, one from the Senate and two from th House, be raised whose duty it shall be, after due advertisement, to meet at Raleigh, N. C., on a day prior to the reassembling of this General Assembly in January next, to which meeting all the creditors of the State or their representatives shall be invite

THE GRAND LODGE OF MASONS.—The Grand Lodge of the State continued in session in this city yesterday. No business of general importance during the day was transacted, with the exception of the readi of the report of Mr. J. H. Mills, Superintendent of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, which report represented his institution in a healthy condition and reflect much credit upon the chity of the people of the State.

Last night the election of officrs for the ensuing Masonic year resulted as follows:

G. M.—Geo. W. Blount, of Wilson.
G. S. W.—S. C. Shelton, of Asheville.
G. J. W.—H. H. Munson, of Wilmington.
G. T.—W. E. Anderson, of Raleigh.
G. S.—Donald W. Bain, of Raleigh.
The installation of officers will take place to-night.

HAD HIS SAY.—Senator Cantwell, of New Hanover, yesterday had his say upon the Civil Rights measure in the Senate. He spoke for two hours and ten minutes during the morning session, and for one hour and thirty minutes in the afternoon, and succeeded in drawing quite a large crowd in the galleries and lobbies. It was full of bitterness against the "Democratic secession" party, placed the speaker as the special champion of the colored man, and made him a thorough advocate of the infamous Civil Rights measure.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At a meeting of the Rescue Steam Fire Company, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

R. H. Bradley, Foreman.
Sam Merrill, Ast. Foreman.
T. T. Fentress, Rec. Sec'y.
T. W. Blake, Financial Sec'y.
P. C. Hardee, Treasury.
J. H. Greene, Engineer.
J. G. Justice, Ast. Engineer.
Frank Brannan, Hose Director.
T. D. Stevenson, Asst. Hose Director.

REV. A. W. MANGUM.—The members and congregation of the Edenton street Methodist church, and the public generally, have great reason to thank Bishop Marvin and his council for returning this eminent divine to the charge he has so well filled for the past three years. We look upon Mr. Mangum as an able man having few superiors in the North Carolina Conference. We too rejoice in his return to this city.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.—On the first day of January, under the new postal laws, we will be compelled to prepay postage upon all papers sent from our office. It will therefore be impossible for us to send any paper that is not paid for in advance. Bills and notices are now being sent to all names upon our books whose time will expire on or by the first of January, and we give this notice in order that all parties may know that if their subscriptions are not renewed by that time we will discontinue the same on that day.

SPORTS OF THE TURF.—The Fair Grounds will be thrown open Saturday to lovers of the turf exercises, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to the charitable object of supplying the poor of the city with fuel.

The gentlemen under whose auspices the races have been gotten up, say they have reason to know and believe that they can furnish fine sport and enjoyment to all that will attend,

There will be a running race, a trotting race, a pacing race and a mule race. The racing will commence precisely at three o'clock, The admission to the grounds will be 25 cents each, and the entire proceeds will be given to the poor of the city of Raleigh, to be distributed to the most needy. This will be giving money to a charitable purpose and not the proceeds of betting or gambling. It is intended to give our people, the members of the Legielature, and any strangers who may be in the city, a few hours of pleasant amusement. No one will object to giving 25 cents to the poor, and it is very commendable to the gentlemen who have gotten the racing for the purpoee of helping the poor of the city, and at the same time afford our people some pleasant enjoyment. Capt. Andrews will run a train out to the grounds, leaving the foot of Hargett street precisely at 10 minutes to 3 o'clock and again at 15 minutes after 3 o'clock. Fare 10 cents. We hope to see a large crowd of both ladies and gentlemen. Our best citizens have the management of the affair. Devote 25 cents on Friday evening for your own amusement and the benefit of the poor.

We are pleased to state further that Capt. Andrews will give all the profits of the excursion trains to the purpose for which the races will be devoted.

THE WILSON GIFT CONCERT.—From a private letter dated Wilson, December 7th, we learn that tickets for the Grand Gift Concert in aid of the Oxford Orphan Asylum are being ordered and sold in every section of the State, and though the time is short, it is more than reasonably expected that no postponement will take place. As heretofore stated, the gentlemen at the head of this enterprise are in every way worthy of confidence. The Managers are the very best citizens of Eastern Carolina, men of well known integrity and business capacity, as honest are the days are long, and will guard well the interests of all ticket purchasers. The Secretary of the Concert, Captain Arthur Booker, we have known from our early boyhood, even as a classmate at school, and we can vouch for him. Active agents have been employed in various sections of the State, who report large sales of tickets. It is confidently believed that this affair will result in a crowning success, and our poor little orphans will have occasion to thank their kind friends of Wilson.

OXFORD ITEMS.—On Saturday night, a few minutes after 10 o'clock, the ringing of the court house bell and the cry of fire pierced the air. It was soon discovered that the fire was at the jail, the prisoners there having made the dangerous experiment of making their escape by burning a hole through the door.

A similar experiment attempted here only a few years ago, resulted in the destruction of the jail and of two prisoners confined in it.

The fire on Saturday night was extinguished before any material damage ensued, though one of the doors was burnt sufficiently to fall down, and the lives of some of the prisoners were considerably endangered.

There are some half dozen prisoners in all confined in jail here.

Dr. W. R. Hicks, a prominent physician here, whose life was despaired of a short time ago, continues to improve.

Colonel T. L. Hargrove, Attorney General, who is at his home here, is quite sick, though not dangerously so.

COMPLIMENTARY.—We are under obligations to our cotemporary of the Concord Sun for the following compliment:

"This captial journal, (the Raleigh DAILY NEWS,) keeps fully up to the demand of the times, always fresh, sparkling and entertaining. It reports the proceedings of the Legislature in full, every day—contains the latest news by telegraph, is outspoken, and fearless in denunciation of wrong, and the champion of the rights of the people. We know of no better Daily than the NEWS, and no better Weekly, unless we except the Sun."

RELIGIOUS.—The Rev. B. Marvin will preach at the Edenton Street Methodist Episcopal Church to-night. The mere announcement is sufficient to draw an audience beyond the capacity of the building, therefore comment from us on his extraordinary ability as a pulpit orator is unnecessary. There are quite a number of persons that have pressing business engagements at home that will remain in the city to-day for the special purpose of hearing Bishop Marvin to-night. Let all go that can as probably this may be our last opportunity of hearing him.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC—A SHORT POSTPONEMENT OF THE FIFTH GIFT CONCERT.—As manager of the gift concerts given in aid of the Public Library of Kentucky, my position creates an important trust in behalf of the Public Library and the ticket-holders of the fifth gift concert. The Public Library of Kentucky and the ticket-holders are jointly interested in the amount of the drawing. The larger the fund to be distributed in gifts, the greater will be the gift awarded to each lucky ticket-holder and the more the amount realized by the Library. To have a full drawing is so manifestly to the interest of those interested, that, rather than have a fractional drawing on the 30th inst., I deem it due to the trust confided to me by the ticket holders and the Public Library of Kentucky, that a short postponement be made to enable me to dispose of the unsold tickets and have a full drawing. Though the very large amount now in bank would enable us to distribute handsome gifts, yet we should feel disappointed in this our last concert, should we be compelled to make a fractional drawing, however large.

We have received so very large a number of letters from all parts of the country from those most largely interested, urging a postponement, if all the tickets be not sold by the 30th, that we feel strengthened in our sense of duty to the ticket-holders and the Public Library, to make the postponement. Under the circumstances, we have determined, in the interest of all parties, to postpone the concert and drawing to Saturday, February 27, 1875, at which time the drawing will positively take place; and, as a guarantee of good faith toward ticket holders, we pledge ourselves to refund to any ticket-holder his money, upon presentation of his ticket, should the drawing fail to come off at the day now fixed. The past, we feel assured, will be sufficient guarantee to all interested that they will be fairly and honestly dealt with. The money paid for tickets is sacredly preserved against all contingencies until after the payment of the gifts, after which the expenses are to be reimbursed and the Public Library is to be paid its profits.

THE LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SENATE.

NINETEENTH DAY.

TUESDAY, Dec. 8th, 1874.

Senate called to order at 11 a. m., by President Armfield
Prayer by Rev. Mr. Marshall.
Journal of yesterday read and approved.

CLAIMS AND MEMORIALS.

Mr. Busbee, certain claims against the State to defray the expenses incurred in the burial of the late Gov. Tod R. Caldwell. Referred.

Mr. Cantwell, a memorial from certain portions of the citizens of New Hanover praying against the formation of the new county of New Hanover. Referred.

Mr. Cantwell, a memorial from the Chamber of Commerce of Wilmington, inviting the attention of our Congressmen to the importance of uniting the inland water system of North Carolina by a canal, and continuing the same along the Atlantic and Gulf Coast to the Mississippi river.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

Messrs. Williamson, from Claims, Busbee, from Judiciary, Peebles, from Banks and Currency, Marler, from Enrolled Bills, Cooke, from Judiciary, reported from their respective committes.

RESOLUTIONS.

House resolution in relgtion to the Civil Rights Bill—being the bill introduced in the House on the 19th of November by Mr. Paul B. Means, and passed by that body. Congratulates the country upon the recent glorious victories achieved, believing the same to have been the beginning of a most happy and glorious era for the general good of this country, and that it was an honest rebuke of the Civil Rights measure that is attempted to be enforced upon us by Congress.

Mr. Cantwell introduced a substitute, (published in the NEWS some two weeks since,) which expresses the belief tha the Civil Rights measure now pending before the National Congress is a just and wise measure, and the only proper or possible solution of "this dangerous and distracting question, which has already occupied the full share of the attention of the country."

Mr. Cantwell advocated for the space of two hours and ten minutes his substitute. He thought this measure was one of the most important subjects of legislation now agitating the minds of the people of the country. We wanted peace—peace was needed in every portion of this grand old country to make her grow forth into real prosperity and to give real happiness to our people, and he believed the adoption of the civil rights measure, as he understood it, and as the people of the land should understand it, would bring about this peace. The great clamor against the "loathsome" legislation of Congress in regard to the civil rights measure was wholly uncalled for, the misguided expressions of a people that had not even looked into the provisions of the proposed bill, which meant to deprive no man of any right now possessed by him. He defended Grant's administraton against the charges of corruption. He defended the rights of the negro, whom this bill sought to protect. He assailed the assertion that had been made that "the negro had no soul."

Mr. Williamson—"Does the gentleman not know that this assertion was made by a distinguished member of his own party in this State?"

Mr. Cantwell—he did not know that any member of his party had made any such assertion; if so, that man spoke only his own sentiments.

At this juncture it was intimated to the speaker by some person, that the remark was made by H. H. Helper. He said he did not recognize him as a member of his party, and he had gone in the right direction.

Mr. Williamson—"I would ask the gentleman if he did not know that the remark was made by a distinguished United States official, at present in and a native of this State?"

Mr. Cantwell—"I am not aware of any such thing, and if such was the fact, may the Lord have mercy upon him, and give him a soul."

The speaker continued to defend his position. The great Republican party having crushed the rebellion, held the fortunes of the people of the South in its hands, and why this expression of feeling against the Republican party which had given us the liberty we now enjoy?

At the expiration of two hours and ten minutes, Mr. Cantwell asked the courtesy of the Senate to adjourn until to-morrow, as he was somewhat exhausted from speaking, and therefore moved that the Senate adjourn until to-morrow 11 o'clock.

Mr. Busbee moved that the Senate adjourn until 7½ o'clock to-night, because the gentleman stated he was broken down, and he desired to give him time to rest.

Mr. Cantwell stated that the gentleman was mistaken; he had not stated that he was broken down.

Mr. Busbee—"I understood the gentleman to say that his 'argument had broken him down.'" [Laughter.]

The Senate refused to adjourn, and the Senator continued his argument.

Mr. Standford moved to adjourn until 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Peebles moved to adjourn until 11 o'clock to-morrow. Lost.

Mr. Standford's motion to adjourn until 3½ o'clock this afternoon prevailed.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At 3½ o'clock the Senate re-assembled, when Mr. Cantwell resumed his remarks, and for one hour and a half continued in advocacy of his substitute. He claimed that the Republican party was the champion of human rights. The enfranchisement of the negro had been productive of civility, peace and good breeding; nothing had done so much for order and peace in North Carolina.

He was replied to briefly by Messrs. Standford and Linney. Mr. Standford exposed much of the political record of the Senator from New Hanover, which did not accord with the sentiments which he had expressed to-day; he had been anxious for eight years to make this speech, and now he could sleep easy, but he could not be depended on by those with whom he was affiliated politically. Mr. Linney stated that the Democratic party had not desired any discussion upon this question; it had been forced upon this party by the Republicans of the two Houses.

Mr. Linney continued his remarks at some length, when the substitute of Mr. Cantwell was lost and the bill as passed the House passed the Senate by a party vote.

Senate adjourned until to-morrow 11 a. m.

AFTER all it seems that BUTLER was not the author of the bill known as the salary grab act. The paternity of the measure is fixed, by the Washington correspondent of the Springfield Republican, upon Minister WASHBURNE, who happened to learn while on a visit to the White House, that an increase of Presidential perquisites would be exceedingly acceptable, and immediately set about to secure it.

THE SPEAKERSHIP.

The New York Herald, of the 5th, gives the result of reported interviews with the Democratic members elected to the 44th Congress, as to their preferences for the Speakership of the next House of Representatives. The strength of the respective candidates, as developed by the interviews, is summarized by the Herald in the following table:

M. C. Kerr,	51
S. S. Cox,	10
Fernando Wood,	18
N. P. Banks,	17
Gilbert Walker,	7
P. F. Thomas,	4

The North Carolina delegation is reported to favor the election of the HON. FERNANDO WOOD, of New York, with the single exception of the Hon. JESSE J. YEATES, of the first district, who is said to favor the selection of ex-Governor GILBERT C. WALKER, of Virginia.

THE MESSAGE.

We have no desire to discuss the recommendations of the President, as contained in the message sent by him to the House of Representatives on Monday and published in full in this paper, on yesterday, in a spirit of carping criticism; but we must confess to a serious disappointment at the tone of the document in the treatment of all questions pertaining to the Southern section of the country, and at the failure of the Chief Magistrate to state definitely his opinions upon some of the matters that have heretofore been subjects of discussion by the two great parties of the country, and of recommendation by himself.

The message opens with an allusion to the prostrate state of the industries of the country, and attributes this unfortunate condition to the spirit of speculation, begotten by what he conceives to be, the inflated condition of the currency. So believing, he naturally recommends the adoption by Congress of such measures as will secure the earliest possible return to specie payments. He declares this the remedy for all of our evils, and discourses lengthily to establish the position. This portion of the message is evidently written in the interest of Wall Street, whose obsequious servant he has been since the day of his entrance into office. The views which impelled him to veto the inflation bill of last session have undergone no modification. From the prominence given this feature of the message, both in the way of position and of elaborate discussion, we infer that it is the purpose of the leaders of the Republican party, adhering to the President, to make the subject of finance the leading question of the Presidential campaign of 1876. They will endeavor so to shape the legislation of this session as to force that issue into prominence. They know that upon the question of inflation and cognate subjects there exists some diversity of opinion in the Democratic ranks; and they hope by making these matters questions at issue in the next campaign, to secure some advantage from our divisions. This hope, we think, is doomed to disappointment. By mutual concessions and good offices, the Democratic party will be welded into a compact body and will go into that contest a solid phalanx, determined upon victory.

Passing to the consideration of our foreign relations, the President declares the country on terms of peace and amity with all the nations of the world—a matter of sincere congratulation to all who appreciate the disastrous effect that a foreign war would work upon our business interests. The affair of the Virginius is briefly alluded to and the unsettled state of certain claims against Spain and Venezuela. Referring to the struggle in Cuba, the President strongly intimates that, in his judgment, the time has come when foreign interference may be the due of the patriots engaged in the struggle for the independence of the island. For ourselves, knowing how deeply the continuance of the struggle has affected the prosperity of our State, we should be heartily glad to see the strife there closed. Some of the most valuable of our industries are languishing because of the cessation of trade with that island. We do not believe that war would result as a consequence of our interference, since Spain has demonstrated her inability to reduce the "insurgents" to subjection; and she would have no just cause of complaint, if in the interests of humanity and civilization, other governments should interfere to secure an end to the disastrous warfare, which not only works injury to Cuba but to all the nations, which have heretofore had business relations with her people.

With recommendations for legislation for the improvement of the laws of naturalization and expatriation; and references to the reports of the Secretaries of War, the Navy and the Treasury, the President passes to the consideration of the condition of the Southern States. As was to have been expected in this portion of the message the President has grossly slandered our people. That there may have been exceptional local disturbances in some few of the Southern States is possible; but that the offences there committed were political in their character, is a charge made but never established by proof. On the contrary the country knows that the leading dailies of New York organized corps of correspondents, composed of able and impartial men, who visited the localities of the alleged disturbances, and after diligent inquiry failed to find that oppression and outrage for opinion's sake existed. Chief among the disturbances that had actual existence was that made by the President's own act, when, in violation of every precedent, in contradiction of every developed fact and without authority of law, he basely declared the KELLOGG usurpation the legitimate government in the State of Louisiana and sent his troops into her borders to enforce his despotic decrees; and when, as if to add aggravation to his crime, after the people of the sovereign State had risen in the majesty of their might and driven the scoundrels, who had usurped their government, despoiled them of their property and insulted them in their liberties, from power, he recalled the cowardly wretches from their hiding places, returned them to the places from which they had been expelled, and gave them license to plunder an impoverished people without limit. The President is solely responsible for any wrong that may have been done in Louisiana. If he had left her people to the control of their own affairs, had not been swift to go to the aid of Kellogg, Casey and Packard, their aiders and abettors, the difficulties that had arisen there would have had peaceable solution at the hands of her own citizens. But he would not play hands off. The reign of his allies and confederates, men of kindred sympathies and sentiments with his own, was endangered, and regardless of the sanctity of his oath of office, he sprang to their assistance with the army and navy of the government. The people of the prostrate State were grossly wronged in person, property and liberty, but what cared he? Aye, what cared he? The streets of New Orleans might be crimsoned with gore, the eye of the passer-by might be shocked by the ghastly spectacle of dead men, slain in domestic strife. What cared he? He had his cigars and wines, his dogs and horses, the White House for Winter use and Long Branch for Summer revel. He heard not, he heeded not the cries of an oppressed and outraged people. He ate, drank and was merry. To what depth of degradation has the nation fallen when such a man is called by the voices of millions of free, American citizens to fill the place once graced by Washington?

With brief references to the Departmental reports, which we shall notice hereafter, the message closed. The document reflects more credit upon the head than the heart of its author. It will scarcely advance Mr. GRANT to the rank of statesmen.

The North Carolina Tobacco Manufacturers.

At a meeting of the North Carolina Tobacco Association, held at Greensboro, 25th ultimo, a preamble and resolutions were adopted, from which we copy the following:

WHEREAS, It is a fact to be regretted, but not denied, that there are manufacturers of tobacco who do evade the United States revenue laws, to the great detriment of the honest manufacturer; therefore,

Resolved, That we, the manufacturers of North Carolina, do hereby pledge ourselves to use all legitimate means in our power to aid the revenue officers in suppressing the same.

Resolved, That no evasion of the law shall be practiced with our knowledge or cousent, but that blockaders shall be exposed and brought to grief, if possible.

Resolved, That we cordially invite all tobacco manufacturers to unite with us in this our endeavor to save the honest manufacturer from shipwreck and bankruptcy.

Resolved, That we will hereafter expose and have prosecuted any merchants, or other persons, who may deal in blockade tobacco.

Resolved, That we will co-operate with the Richmond manufacturers, and recommend that an association of the tobacco manufacturers of all the States be formed.

The recent message of Governor Allen, of Ohio, is a model of brevity. In calling attention to the propriety of considering whether the compensation of county officers is not disproportionate to the salaries of other public officers and of persons in private life, the Governor says: "Public servants should be reasonably compensated; but salaries and fees should not be so high as to make the getting of office a profession, and to enable candidates and applicants to buy their way to public places."

A bill is pending in the Alabama Legislature, that grants to the "Southern States Coal and Iron Company," of Great Britain, the right to purchase lands in Alabama, for the purpose of making iron and steel. It asks no donation or bounty, but simply the right to buy, build and manufacture, with a view to the production of iron and steel. The Montgomery Advertiser trusts that it will speedily become a law, and that it will help to develop the mineral wealth of Alabama.

A terrible disease, known as the black death, has broken out in DeKalb county, Tenn., and, defying medical skill, is playing havoc with the population. Able physicians of Nashville think the disease must be bilious dysentery of a fatal type, similar to that which followed cholera last year, but not contagious.

It has been suggested that Irishmen in all countries should join in fitly celebrating the centenary of O'Connell in August next, and inviting representatives from every State and clime to the Irish metropolis "to celebrated the jubilee of freedom," when a monument to O'Connell is expected to be inaugurated.

TAILORING.

POLONIUS' ADVICE TO LAERTES:

"Costly thy Habit as thy Purse can Buy."

It will be remembered by Shakespearan readers in the play of Hamlet, the advice of Polonius to his son Laertes, who was just in the act of leaving Denmark for a Journey to France, wherein he said:

"Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy, but not expressed in fancy; rich not gaudy —for the apparel oft proclaims the man," &c., &c.

Ministers from the pulpit have said that every young man should paste in his hat the remarks in full of Polonius.

WEIKEL, the Merchant Tailor,

In endorsing all that has been said on the subject, would remark that he is better prepared than ever to supply to his numerous friends and customers "habits" just as those mentioned. "Rich, but not randy," and not so "costly" as you might suppose. His stock of

French, English and German

Clothes and Cassimeres for the fall trade is full and complete.

THE DAILY NEWS.

WEDNESDAY.....DECEMBER 9, 1874.

NORTH CAROLINA.

They have fresh lettuce, radishes and mustard greens in Goldsboro.

The Daily Times of Newbern, is the only Republican daily published in the State.

Two field sportsmen of Murphy, Cherokee county, captured 50 ? lbs of venison in one day.

Seventy-five to one hundred bales cotton of per day are brought into Charlotte over the Air Line railroad.

It required 73 beeves, 116 hogs, 33 sheep, 3 calves and 4 deer to satisfy the hungry appetites of Wilmington last week.

The post office in Lincoln county known as "Dry Pond," will be changed in name after the 1st of January to "Denver."

William J. Hays, of Warren, is the champion 'possum and coon hunter of the State. He has bagged this season, 89 'possums and 75 coons.

There has been a larger quantity of mountain apples brought in to Charlotte this season than for many years past. They retail from wagons at an average of $1.60 per bushel.

Timothy Hagins, a member of the African M. E. Conference, has been expelled for Beecher-Tilton-erizing, and the Bishop of said Church has requested the Goldsboro Messenger to note the fact.

The present Sheriff of Catawba county, Jonas Cline, has been in that office twenty-eight years successively. N. R. Jones, Sheriff of Warren, follows next on the list, having been in office eighteen years.

A new railroad enterprise is a project to build a road from Statesville to Marion or Glade Springs on the V. & T. R. R. to be known as the Virginia & North Carolina Railroad. The propesition meets with general favor on the proposed route.

The Asheville Pioneer comes out this week on the regular Police Gazette style. In one column there are nine articles, and the following are headings of eight: "Shooting affair in Mitchell county"—"Stabbed"—"Thieves robbing the mail"—"Murder in Jackson"—"Particulars of the Murphy homicide"—"Hotel Robbery"—and "Prison poetry."

Says the Charlotte Democrat: We are pleased to learn that Victor C. Barringer, Esq., lately appointed one of the Judges of the Foreign Court of appeals in Egypt, has safely reached his destination with his health much improved. His address is "Hon. V. C. Barringer, Judge of the Court of appeals, Cairo, Egypt, via England and Brindisi." The postage, 17 cents, must be prepaid.

Under the caption of "Fish Extraordinary," the Newbern Times says: "Two small fishing smacks arrived in market basin yesterday, each loaded with blue fish that were caught in the bight of Cape Hatteras by means of drift nets. The smaller of these vessels, as we are informed had on board 3,800 fish weighing fourteen tons, an average of nearly eight pounds each, and the larger vessel a still greater quantity. They were sold at retail for 20 to 25 cents apiece, and everybody in town had from one to a half dozen blue fish."

Good Wishes—Material Prosperity—Educational Interests—Fine Arts—Population—Commercial Statistics—Churches—The Fair.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Dec. 7, '74.

Your numerous friends and readers in our "City of Flowers" have watched, with sincere gratification, your progressive career. The "rare, rich and racy" NEWS, daily receives the welcome to which its merit entitles it.

WILMINGTON

has improved so rapidly since the war, that when wandering members of the "oldest familes" revisit it, they scarcely recognize their former home. One of the handsomest banks in the State has been built on Front street and Market street claim the most elegant drug store in the South, excepting New Orleans. A miniature forest of masts may be seen every day in front of the large warehouses on the Cape Fear River.

A large brick cotton factory will be completed in a few days. The exterior of the building is finished and presents a very imposing appearance.

THE EDUCATIONAL INTERESTS

of Wilmington languish. We have a common school endowed by a wealthy and charitable widow lady of Boston, two or three female schools and several male schools, all of which are admirably managed. But the city does not contain a College or Seminary. Our sister city, Raleigh, claims three of the best in the State! We need a first-class institution of this kind, with a high standard of scholarship. Such an institution would receive the encouragement and patronage of many of our citizens who, are unable to send their children from home to obtain the desired educational advantages.

THE FINE ARTS

are better represented here than in any other town in North Carolina. Classic busts are seen in several windowson the streets. A marble Psyche, Flora and other graceful characters of mythology, a nymph or naiad or what is better, a cast of our heroes Lee and Jackson, greet the visitor in many of the private parlors and libraries The gallery of paintings owned by Phillip Heinsgerger, over his book-store on Market street, contains several fine copies from the old masters. The "Mater Dolorosa," "Beatrice Cenci," several "Madonnas," some of Sir Edward Landseer and Rosa Bonheur's animal sketches, are particularly noticeable among the the hundred pictures in the gallery.

Rev. Mr. Oertel occupied a studio here during the Summer, and painted from views near the sound, two superb "Ocean Views," for parties in New York. Mr. Oertel is making preparations to study his art in Europe and Palestine. Wm. Garl Browne is the favorite portrait painter in New Hanover and the surrounding counties. It is given up by all, that he has no peer in his profession, in North Carolina.

THE POPULATION

numbers fifteen thousahd. Every profession and trade is represented.

COMMERCE

continues to increase. During the last year fifty thousand cotton bales, almost countless barrels of crude turpentine, and various other products, have been sent from this market on foreign and native vessels. England, Germany, Spain, Norway and Sweden flaunt their colors every day in our harbor.

EVERY SUNDAY

the air is vocal with the chiming bells of eighteen churches; ten white, and eight colored.

Bishop Atkinson, of the Episcopal church, has his residence here. He is now absent, having gone to assist in the consecration of Assistant Bishop Wingfield. The Episcopal communion is the largest, and wealthiest. The Presbyterian nearly equals it in numbers and wealth. The Baptists have the finest church, and the Methodists have unfortunately just lost one of the most gifted and eloquent pulpit orators in the country, Rev. R. S. Moran, their late pastor. There is one Roman Catholic church in the city. A large body of spiritualists meet at different places every Sabbath afternoon. Several staunch men belong to that body.

THE FAIR

of the Cape Fear commences on the 15th of this month. I understand Col. Fremont is making strenuous efforts to make it a good one. It is to be regretted that he has not a man like you have to take "Holt" of it and help him push it through. I hope the irrepressible Woodson will "pitch his tent" among us and bring the corps editorial with him. As I never lose my poetry book, one bad habit among the few (?) to which he is addicted, I will conclude with,

"Come when the spring strews her flowers o'er the lea,
Come when the roses of June freshly blow,
Come in the Autumn, or with Winter's bright snow,
Come when you will we've a welcome for thee!"

COSMOS.

The Printers' Tournament in Washington.

The great printers' contest in Washington city came off on Saturday last. The Chronicle, of Sunday, gives the result as follows:

The tournament of the second class and the long primer class commenced at 9 o'clock a. m., and continued for one hour and a half, with the following result:

First prize, W. W. Maloney, of the Evening Star, who set 2,278 ems; second prize, F. A. McGill, of the National Republican, 2,251 ems; third prize, H. W. Hartman, of the Sunday Herald, 2,187 ems.

The long primer prizes were won by the following named:

J. R. McBridge, who set 2,127 ems; G. J. S. Kunnicutt, 2,037 ems; H. C. Tarleton 1,988 ems.

At 12 o'clock the contest for the grand prizes of the first class began, each conestant working steadily for three hours. At 3:30 o'clock the following result was announced:

Committee of Arrangements.—G. W. Blount, B. F. Briggs and A. Barnes, Esqs.

Depository—Bank of Wilson.

Advisory Board.—John Nichols, Esq., Raleigh, W. F. Davis, Esq., Kittrells, A. H. A. Williams, Esq., Oxford, Maj J. P. Jenkins, Nashville, J. H. Thorp, Esq., Rocky Mount, Dr. R. W. King, James W. Lancaster and James E. Clark, Esqs., Wilson.

While this enterprise is not conducted under the direct auspices of any Lodge, yet its object is to aid that noble institution, the Oxford Orphan Asylum, which was established by the Grand Lodge of the State, and the management is entirely in e hands of members of the Order.

The object is exclusively for the benefit of the Orphan Asylum and the Committee deem it unnecessary to make any extended appeal to the people of North Carolina in behalf of an institution which is so worthy of their support. The low price of the tickets places it in the power of every one to aid a noble cause, and at the same time the chances of being reimbursed are unusually favorable.

It is confidently believed that the enterprise will be a success, but if from any cause there should be no Concert and distribution, all the money received from the ticket holders shall be returned to them without discount.

No tickets sold will be entitled to a chance for the Gifts unless the money for the same has been received at this office.

The Gifts will be distributed immediately after the Concert.

Any person holding a ticket entitled to a Gift who desires the Asylum to have the benefit of such Gift, will notify the Secretary by such endorsement on back of the ticket, and the same shall be appropriated as directed.

☞ Money for tickets must be sent by Registered Letter, Money Order or Express, directed to A. BARNES, Secretary. nov 5-dawtd Wilson, N. C.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

☞ THE DAILY NEWS IS THE ONLY PAPER IN RALEIGH THAT TAKES THE TELEGRAPHIC REPORTS, AND IS THE ONLY ONE THAT FURNISHES THE LATEST NEWS AND MARKET REPORTS.☜

NOON DISPATCHES.

The Press on the Message.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—The Herald says the message of Grant is a more creditable document, both in point of reasoning and Literary execution, than its predecessors from the same course. The President makes it clear enough that in his view the three principle causes which have led to the disastrous defeat of his party are the prostration of business, the condition of the Southern States and the unsuccessful experiment of reforming the civil service. This is not directly stated, but it is necessarily implied in texture as his views on those subjects. The tone of the message so far as it has party bearing, is a committal of the President to the restoration of a sound currency, an implied promise to treat South Carolina with lienity and justice, and abandon the civil service reform unless Congress supports it by legislation. This is the programme of President Grant for re-instating the Republican party. The President has got the Spanish question into such a state that it can be fanned into a flame whenever he thinks it expedient. He relies on the country to support him in war in which the abolition slavery in Cuba and breaking the yoke of colonial servitude will be the leading ideas. But Grant makes stupendous mistakes if he thinks he can play this desperate game with success. If he has "pigeon holed" our just complaint against Spain with such purpose, he will have cause to rue the day when he meditated such a trick. The financial recommendations of the message are sound in principle, but defective in details.

The Times considers the President's views on finance have undergone no change, and his proposition to repeal the legal tender clause is sound. The President in stating that he will still sustain Kellogg, does not say what he will do about Packard and Casey, which is a pity. The Times thinks the President's reference to Southern matters is plain advice, given in kindness and frankness. We are sorry that he announces his intention of abandoning the civil service reform, unless Congress distinctly supports it by legislation. It was an attempt that promised much and might have been made to yield a great defeat. With his recommendation as to specie payment and free banking, we are entirely in sympathy.

The Tribune considers this the best message of the President, probably, because it was written under the chastising of the late elections. It condemns his position towards Louisiana, but commends mainly, nearly all the rest of the message.

The Sun says the President's message is reasonably sound theoretically on hard money and the return to specie payments, but the President's arguments are not as urgent as his theories are sound, while some of his plans for retiring our paper money, and reviewing gold and silver as a circulating mediam, will provoke severe criticism not only of inflationists, but of hard money men as well, with the exception of his recommendation of free-banking. The views he now expresses concerning the currency, are but a reiteration of his veto of the greenback bill of the last session.

The World says that President Grant and Secretary Bristow are loss in doubt than the Republican press and politicians as to the significance of the overthrow of their party in the late elections. They have reached clear opinion by what means, and if by any means, political revolution can be stopped midway and the Democratic party hindered from taking possession of every Department of the Government in the actions of 1876. Immediate steps towards species payment not promises of which execution is perpetually postponed, and a reform of tariff to end by obtaining larger revenue on fewer articles, this their concurrent advice, exhibits that the President and the Secretary's appreciation, at last, of the great evils which the country is suffering, and their admission that those evils are of legislative origin, and admit of no remedy. Add to these the exorbitances and usurpations of power on the part of the Federal government, and General Grant and Secretary Bristow will have discovered precisely the vulnerable points in the Republican policy upon which the Democratic assault has been concentrated, and they advise Congress to abandon the defence of what is indefensible, and to frustrate further Democratic Democratic victories by themselves now doing what a despairing people have elected the next Democratic Congress to do.

Foreign Items.

LONDON, December 8.—Rev. Mr. Kanochie, a well known ritualistic clergyman, has been suspended for six weeks from the exercise of his clerical functions.

MADRID, Dec. 8.—The Bishop of Urgel, until lately a hot adherent of Don Carlos, has written a letter announcing his abandonment of the Carlists cause, and stating that he has advised Don Alphonzo to take the same course. He declares that he will remain in his diocese even if the Republican troops regain possession.

SANTANDER, December 8.—Advices from the Carlist General's headquarters have been received. Gen. Dorregaray has returned there and been appointed to the command of the army of the Centre. General Tristany commands in the North. It is expected that Serrano will order an attack on the Carlist lines in Novre.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 8.—Owing to the Puddlers' strike four hundred furnaces are cold. There are fifteen thousand men idle.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—The Longshoremen have recinded the order that members shall not work with non-society men. The strike utterly failed.

Affairs at Vicksburg.

VICKSBURG, MISS., Dec. 8.—There has been for some time a trouble brewing between the Tax-Payers Association and the citizens and county officials. The Sheriff was acting without a legal bond and the Board of Supervisors refused to order the new one, although time for paying taxes had arrived. Two or three other officials were under indictment for forgery and embezzlements, and the citizens despairing of any relief from the partizan of the Courts, had a meeting last Wednesday, and in a body, proceeded to the Court House to demand the resignation of the Sheriff, Chancery Clerk, Treasurer and Coroner. All fled except Sheriff Crosby. A negro and he signed his resignation Saturday. A card appeared on the streets signed "Crosby," calling on all citizen of Warren county, Republicans white and block, to come to his aid and support him in his position. Crosby publicly and through the papers denied the authorship of the card; yet this morning armed bodies of negroes appeared advancing on the city from six different roads. The alarm was sounded about 9 o'clock, and citizens gathered en masse armed, and immediately advanced to meet the negroes on Baldwin's Ferry Road. The negroes were met just outside of the city and on Grove street, and were about 200 strong. The commander of the citizens warned the negroes to disperse, but they refused, and immediately firing commenced on both sides. The negroes retreated about a mile, and again made a stand in an old breast works and house, but they were soon routed. The loss in this engagement was one citizen, Oliver Brown, who was killed. About twelve or fifteen negroes were killed, and several wounded, and about twenty were taken prisoners. On the hills of the Ferry road, about two hundred and fifty negroes were met and routed after a short engagement, with several killed and wounded. Andrew Owens, the negro who commanded the negroes in Baldwin's Ferry road, was captured and committed to jail.

In an interview with a reporter, Owens says he was ordered by Sheriff Crosby to come to the city to-day with all the armed men he could get together.

Alexander Stockhouse, from Newton, one of the captured negroes, says an order for all the negroes to come to Vicksburg this morning was read in church Sunday. Crosby, who is now under guard at the Courthouse, denies he gave such orders.

It is reported this evening that the negroes are committing depredations in the country. The intense excitement that prevailed this a. m. has subsided to a great degree. Yet many citizens are under arms and all the roads are picketed.

LATEST—The evidence just recieved renders it absolutely certain that Gov. Ames and his Attorney General, George E. Harriss, incited the advised the invasion of this city by negroes to-day. This evidence has been laid before the ablest lawyers of the city with a view to arresting and bringing those parties to this city for trial.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8th.—HOUSE—Poland made reports regarding Arkansas, ordered to be printed.

The bill reducing the allowances to Bank Examiners, passed.

The bill amending the National Bank Act in matter of proceedings in liquidation was postponed until to-morrow.

A large number of bills were introduced and referred, and then the House went into Committees on the general calender and took up the bill introduced for the issue of 365 bonds convertible and reconvertible into currency.

A long and important debate sprung up on this bill, which was advocated by Kellogg and Butler, of Massachusetts, and opposed by Garfield, of Ohio, and Dawes, of Massachusetts. Finally, it went over without action.

Adjourned.

SENATE.—A large number of publishing firms ask a change in the postal laws.

West, of Louisiana, introduced the following bill, which directs the Postmaster General, without delay, to construct a line of telegraph from Washington to Boston via Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Hartford, to be operated in the post offices of these cities by appointees of the Postmaster General, under such regulations and at such rates of tariff as he may prescribe, provided that the rates shall be uniform to all persons, with such uniform reduction to the newspaper press as may be deemed by him advisable; and provided the rates shall be adjusted to meet and not exceed the expense of operating and maintaining said line, and providing a net income equal to five per cent. interest on the original cost of the same. The bill proposes to appropriate $600,000 for the foregoing purposes.

Chandler's bill amendatory of section 110 of the National Currency Act of 1864, and section 9 of the act of July 13, 1866, provides that they shall not be construed either in pending cases, or otherwise to apply to the evidences of actual indebtedness issued by any mining, manufacturing or other corporation, or by individuals, except banks and bankers, prior to the enactment of this bill, but shall apply to such evidences of indebtedness issued thereafter, upon positive proof of their being calculated and intendd to circulate as money weights. The bill proposes to reduce the salary of the President after this term to $25,000.

Harvey's bill provides that homestead and pre-emption settlers, whose crops have been seriously injured this year by the grasshoppers, may be absent from their lands until June 1st, 1875, without the forfeiture of their existing rights.

Spencer, of Alabama, a bill to provide the transfer of certain causes from the District Court to the Circuit Court in the State of Alabama.

Adjourned.

Miscellaneous.

The Beecher-Tilton case has been postponed until Monday.

The iron works at Troy, N. Y., have resumed work at reduced rates.

The scheme for the coalition of the Right and Left Centres in the French Assembly is making progress. Much depends on the election of a President of the Left Centre.

The succession of Premier Disraeli is talked of, owing to his ill health.

The Mark Lane Express, in its review of breadstuff's market, says: The weather throughout Europe for the past week has been wintry. Many of the Russian ports are closed and will remain so until Spring. The European wheat markets have been firm and fluctuations generally small. In some places the rise of one shilling is reported. It is thought the lowest rates for wheat have been past. The weather everywhere is favorable for the new crop.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The Senate caucus to-day was confined to some changes in the different committees. The Senators are not communicative, but indirect questions elicit the fact that the affairs of Louisiana, Arkansas and belligerent Vicksburg, were casually mentioned in the caucus, but dodged the question, as it was too heavy for them. It is fair to say, however, that these questions were merely broached. The impression is that Louisiana and Arkansas will be let alone, and as there are no Federal soldiers to spare, Vicksburg may hold their own.

Commander Wm. G. Cushing, who cut out the Albermarle, has gone to the Insane Asylum.

There was a full Cabinet to-day.

Dr. Hayes will urge Congress to fit out an Aretic expedition to act in concert with that of Great Britain.

Secretary Bristow's report says, regarding Col. McCarlees' management of the Printing Bureau, that a careful consideration of the manner of preparing the bonds, notes and stamps, issued by the United States, has led to the conclusion that the work can be more satisfactorily and safely done in the Treasury Department than elsewhere.

The Bureau of Engraving and Printing is now supplied with the best machinery, which has been acquired at a great cost, and the most skillful artists are employed by the government without difficulty. The system of checks, now in use in that Bureau, together with the special paper, adopted by the Department, furnish all proper and reasonable protection against duplication and other frauds.

More About the Negro Rioters in Mississippi.

VICKSBURG, MISS., Dec. 8.—It is reported this morning that the negroes will renew their attack on the city to-day. The citizens are all under arms and have been largely reinforced from the adjoining towns. Companies have been sent to the country well armed and equipped. Some prisoners were captured yesterday and are closely watched to prevent their lynching. The negro loss, yesterday is estimated at about 70. One white was killed and two wounded. Crosby is still under guard and the whites hold the entire city.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, for the cure of Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The great virtue of this medicine is that it ripens the matter and throws it out of the system, purifies the blood and thus effects a cure.

Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic, for the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, &c. The Tonic produces a healthy action of the stomach, creating an appetite, forming chyle, and curing the most obstinate case of indigestion.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills, for the cure of Liver Complaint, &c. These pills are alterative, and produce a healthy action of the liver, without the least danger, as they are free from calomel, and yet more efficacious in restoring a healthy action of the liver.

These remedies are a certain cure for Consumption, as the Pulmonic Syrup ripens the matter and purifies the blood. The Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, create a health bile, and remove all diseases of the liver, often a cause of Consumption. The Sea Weed Tonic gives tone and strength to the stomach, makes a good digestion, and enables the organs to form good blood; and thus creates a healthy circulation of healthy blood. The combined action of these medicines, as thus explained, will cure every case of Consumption, if taken in time, and the use of the medicine persevered in Dr Schenck is professionally at his principal office, corner Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, every Monday, where all letters for advice must be addressed.

New Jersey Enamel Paint Co.,

BRADLEY'S PATENT

MADE FROM

Pure White Lead, Linseed Oil and Zinc, and Always Ready for Use.

READ THE FOLOWING TESTIMONIALS:

From Prof. W. G. Simmons, Wake Forest College, North Carolina.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, N. C., October 4, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir: We have for several months been using your Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on our College Building, and are well pleased with it. Though it was applied by one having no experience in such work, yet we have a good job. We shall continue to use it—believing it in point of economy, durability and facility of application, it is superior to any other pigment offered in the mart.

W. G. SIMMONS.

From Messrs. Engelhard & Saunders, Editors and Proprietors Journal.

WILMINGTON, N. C., December, 26, 1873.

We desire to call especial attention to the advertisement of "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint." We can recommend it from a knowledge of its merits. Some of the employees of this office having purchased some of this paint from Mr. C. P. Knight, of Baltimore, have used it and put it in the highest terms of it, after a trial of several months. While it is as durable as ordinary paint, it has a much finer finish, and its cost and convenience will recommend it to all in need of paint.

From S. McGill, M. D.

THE PLAINS, FAQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The paint came safe to hand as ordered, 2 kegs, 5 gallon each, and 3 buckets, 1 gallon each. As a practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks (not constant work) completed the house, two coats; the second applied thick, and it is now generally admired that, for "enamel," like harding, and body and harmony of colors, there is no handsomer job in the place. I have saved sixty-five dollars by the operation—which is an item just now with the South people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as "Patent Nostrums," but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people—its excellency material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of being "ready mixed," that I give you permission (if it is desirable to you) to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly,

S. McGILL, M. D.
